Provincial Masters Championships*

*Maple Leaf Curling Club
January 26th – 29th, 2009*

On behalf of the Maple Leaf Curling club I am pleased to welcome all the teams competing in the PEI Curling Association Provincial Masters Championships. As a member of the PEICA we are proud to have the opportunity to host this year's event.

Our sincere thanks and appreciation goes to provincial curling association for the planning of this event

Also a special thanks to staff and club members who volunteer their time to make this a successful event. Be sure to try the food in the kitchen. We are lucky to have such great cooks!

The Maple Leaf Curling Club would like to wish the teams all the best in this Masters event.

Good luck, good sportsmanship and good curling,

Russell Jones

President

Maple Leaf Curling Club

Master Men and Women Curlers

On behalf of the PEI Curling Association's board and member clubs we hope that you enjoy the hospitality of the Maple Leaf Curling Club

We thank the club and all clubs for the support we get to run these events, not only from the club members but also the extra work put in by their staff.

May you all participating in this, our Provincial Masters and those that go on to the Maritime Masters at the Mayflower in Halifax, March 1st -5th, share in the camaraderie of good completion and fellowship.

Good curling, may the curling gods be with you.

Ray McCourt

President

PEI Curling Association
